PROFILE

Kirsty became a member of Chambers in October 2020 after successfully completing her pupillage under the supervision of Stephanie Jarron, Matthew Maddison and Hugo Groves. She was called to the Bar in 2018 by the Honourable Society of Lincoln's Inn after achieving an Outstanding on the BPTC at Manchester BPP. During pupillage, Kirsty gained experience across all areas of Chambers' work, including assisting in a two week disclosure review.

Kirsty accepts instructions in all of Chambers' main practice areas.

PRACTICE AREAS

Insolvency & Restructuring

Kirsty deals with all aspects of both corporate and individual insolvency. Kirsty is able to act and advise in a broad range of insolvency litigation including winding up and bankruptcy petitions, applications to annul bankruptcies and set aside statutory demands, injunctions to restrain presentation of winding up petitions, claims against directors, transactional avoidance, applications for administration orders and extension of administrations.

Kirsty's recent experience includes acting for an administrator in an application to end an administration and advising in relation to a disputed bankruptcy petition based on a personal guarantee.

Company

Kirsty welcomes instructions in a broad range of company law matters. She is able to assist in relation to shareholder disputes, claims against directors and claims involving LLPs and partnerships.

During pupillage, Kirsty assisted in a five day trial concerning a partnership dispute.

Commercial

Kirsty undertakes all aspects of commercial litigation and dispute resolution including summary judgment applications, applications for interim relief and mortgage repossessions. Kirsty is also able to advise on contractual disputes including issues of construction and interpretation.

Property

Kirsty accepts instructions across a wide range of property matters including both residential and business possession claims.

During pupillage, Kirsty was involved in a successful proprietary estoppel claim by two brothers against the estate of a deceased farmer.

Wills, Trusts and Probate

Kirsty undertakes work in a broad range of wills, trusts and probate matters. During pupillage, Kirsty gained experience of 1975 Act claims and advised regarding the interpretation of a will.
